NORM!
VEGAS CONFIDENTIAL

'Lion' child lead shows big talent

File this name away for future reference: Ruby E. Crawford, one of two actors who play young Nala, the child lead, in the first half of "The Lion King."

She's the latest child-star-in-the-making represented by Philadelphia agent Nancy Carson.

Crawford, 11, plays the young lioness and childhood pal of future lion king Simba in the new Disney production at Mandalay Bay.

Two years ago Crawford made her Broadway debut in "The Color Purple" with "American Idol" winner Fantasia Barrino. During her 10 months with "Purple," she also appeared with another "Idol" alum, Jennifer Hudson, in the "Sex and the City" film.

She's already scouted out the scariest roller coaster in town. "New York-New York, 203-foot drop," she gushed.

Given Carson's track record when it comes to young talent with sky-high potential, Crawford will no doubt soon appear on the radar of Hollywood talent scouts.

Carson, who owns New York-based Carson-Adler Agency, represented Britney Spears, Ben Affleck, Matt Damon, and Ben Stiller when they were kids.

Crawford's big personality doesn't shut down off stage. Within a few minutes after our introduction at the opening night after-party at Mix, the North Carolina youngster offered to introduce this columnist to her co-stars.

Off we went, weaving through the large crowd, with Crawford making introduction after introduction, including leads Kissy Simmons (Nala) and Clifton Oliver (Simba).

Simmons bursts onto the scene early in the second half, with a stunning athleticism that made her a Florida state champion in track.

Oliver said the chemistry between Nala and Simba has pleased the production's brain trust.

"They said we light up the stage and they've added more (to the characters)," said Oliver, who played Simba in the Broadway production.

THE SCENE AND HEARD

Donny Osmond told Entertainment Tonight, in segments that aired Friday and Sunday, that ailing "Charlie's Angels" icon Farrah Fawcett recently called and requested that a clip of her appearance on the very first episode of ABC's "Donny and Marie" show in 1976 be sent to her.

In the clip, Fawcett is seen dancing onstage with Donny and Marie. Fawcett is battling terminal cancer. ...

Julie Taymor, the first woman to win a Tony Award for Best Director of a Musical ("The Lion King"), took time off from her next big Broadway project — the musical "Spider-Man" — to attend opening weekend of "The Lion King" in Las Vegas.

The buzz is building over "Spider-Man," in part because it is being scored by U-2's Bono and The Edge. It opens in February.

ERIK KABIK/DISNEY

SIGHTINGS

At Tiger Jam on Saturday at Mandalay Bay: Pittsburgh Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, NFL Hall of Famer Marcus Allen, Minnesota Vikings star running back Adrian Peterson, and NBA standouts Dwyane Wade and Alonzo Mourning. Roethlisberger later made an appearance at Body English (Hard Rock Hotel) and Wade was with Gabrielle Union at Rain (Palms). ... Also at the Palms: Retired NHL star Adam Oates, at Nove Italiano; slugger Barry Bonds, with friends partying at the Playboy Club on Saturday and later at Moon; former University of Nevada, Las Vegas basketball coach Jerry Tarkanian at N9NE Steakhouse. ... At Shecky Greene's performance Saturday at the Suncoast:

Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme and Lorraine and Dennis Bono. ... At The Bank (Bellagio) on Saturday: Dallas Mavericks owner Mark Cuban, with Dirk Nowitzki and Brandon Bass, sharing a bottle of Rumpelintz. ... Sean "Diddy" Combs, at Sapphire men's club on Saturday with a group after earlier hosting at Wet Republic at MGM Grand. ... Baseball great Greg Maddux, at the Vinter Grill in a foursome on Friday.

THE PUNCH LINE

"The name of the production: 'Osama Mia' — From David Letterman's 'Top Ten Reasons Your Production Was Not Nominated For A Tony Award.'"

Posted May 18, 2009 • 7:56 a.m.

Hip-hop mogul, actor, singer and producer P.Diddy has had such a great time in Las Vegas the past two weeks, he's torn about going back to Miami for Memorial Day or staying here! Sean Combs has been filming his new movie Get Him to the Greek with co-stars Jonah Hill and Russell Brand, and they even recruited Luxor comedy headliner Carrot Top to join in some scenes.

During the visit, P.Diddy took cast, crew and security staff members to Spearmint Rhino. He insisted that none of the topless strippers dance for him, but he happily paid for lap dances for his entourage. I'm reliably told that the girls who wanted photos with Diddy's gal pal and not him had their shots wind up on the cutting room floor!

But over the weekend, it was time for him to host the daytime party at Wet Republic, the sleek, chic ultra pool at MGM Grand. Said a spywitness: "The place erupted when he arrived on the blue carpet. The music mogul's first priority was to greet all the fans lined up waiting to meet him."

Sean and his entourage took over one of Wet Republic's luxury bungalows. Then he surprised everybody with an impromptu performance of his smash hit "Last Night" and then left the music for the rest of the afternoon to his good friend DJ Felix Da Housecat.

"We're here at Wet Republic, and we're here to set the pool area off," Diddy said. "I'm known for throwing the best parties, and whenever I get with the whole MGM family, we do it big. We're here to make sure everyone has a good time. I've been out here shooting a movie for the last two weeks, so I'm either going to be here or in Miami, but I'm falling in love with Vegas ...," as he referenced his upcoming plans for Memorial Day weekend. "It's been incredible, and Vegas has been treating us great."

The Did (that's what his friends call him) did "Last Night" for the crowd. No, his "Last Night," with Keyshia Cole. Not The Strokes one. That would have been weird. ("Last night [unnnnh] she said [Yeeah!] Oh baby I feel so down [unh-huh] ...")

"I've been out here shooting a movie for the last two weeks, so I'm either going to be here or in Miami, but I'm falling in love with Vegas," the Did said of his Memorial Day plans. "Its been incredible, and Vegas has been treating us great ... we're just having a good time."

Star sightings in Las Vegas have undoubtedly been heating up as the temperatures have continued to rise.

In fact, celebrity-watchers didn't have to wait until the weekend to see some famous faces around town.

Saturday involved a mixture of rappers and rockers, with Sean "Diddy" Combs at Wet Republic and Ja Rule at Pure at Caesars Palace.

While Diddy spent most of the afternoon lounging in his cabana, he took the time to mingle a little with his fans and gave a short performance, too, and performed a solo version of "Last Night" (his single with Keyshia Cole).
